Someone Else's Garden is the story of Mamta, the eldest daughter of seven children. The setting is rural India in a small village that is governed by the rules and customs of the townspeople. Her father, a cruel, self involved man, arranges her marriage and considers all daughters burdens.

Someone Else's Garden by Dipika Rai - Goodreads

A big, intensely involving and evocative Indian novel, with its story of a woman's fight for her place in the world, reminiscent of Khaled Hosseini's 'A Thousand Splendid Suns'. The dew hasn't formally evaporated off the mustard leaves outside. Except for the sleeping baby, she is alone at home. He
